

جامعة العين
AL AIN UNIVERSITY

AAU E-NEWSLETTER

MARCH 2024 - ISSUE 144

Issued by the Public Relation Office at AAU
p.relation@aau.ac.ae

Engineering Accreditation Commission

PREVIOUS ENEWSLETTERS

aau.ac.ae | +971 3 7024 888 | +971 2 6133 555

Ramadan Iftar for Al Ain University Community

In the presence of Dr. Noor Al-Deen Atatrah, Vice Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Al Ain University, and Prof. Ghaleb Al-Refae, the AAU President, Al Ain University organized a Ramadan Iftar for the university community at its campuses in Al Ain and Abu Dhabi. The university is committed to holding this event annually to foster positive social cohesion among officials and employees, strengthen bonds of love, brotherhood, and communication among them, and imbue a sense of spiritual atmosphere during the holy month, which contributes to enhancing employees' sense of belonging and positively impacts overall performance. The attendees enthusiastically engaged in competitions and entertainment activities held after Iftar, aimed at breaking the work routine and creating a fun atmosphere. Subsequently,

READ MORE

WATCH VIDEO \(AL AIN\)

WATCH VIDEO \(ABU DHABI\)

Al Ain University Organizes Ramadan Iftar for Students

The student clubs at Al Ain University (Al Ain & Abu Dhabi campus) organized an iftar for students from various colleges to celebrate the holy month of Ramadan. Students gathered for the iftar, which featured a diverse array of dishes prepared by students. The iftar was accompanied by entertaining activities and games organized by the student clubs, aiming to break the routine of academic life and provide an atmosphere of enjoyment and entertainment for the students, who spent enjoyable moments participating in them. Hosting the annual student Ramadan iftar at Al Ain University, affirming it as a positive step to enhance the spirit of unity and camaraderie among the students and to foster an environment of warmth and communication among them.

READ MORE

The Admission & Registration Unit and the COB spread joy on the occasion of the arrival of the blessed month of Ramadan

Both the Admission and Registration Unit and the College of Business at Al Ain University (Abu Dhabi Campus) have initiated the distribution of symbolic gifts to both academic and administrative staff on the occasion of the blessed month of Ramadan, with the Admission and Registration Unit aiming to spread joy and enhance the spirit of unity, respect, and integration within the university community.

Meanwhile, the College of Business emphasized through the initiative the college's commitment not only to academic excellence but also to dedication to fostering an inclusive community that values diversity by promoting the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), particularly Goal 10 on reducing inequalities and Goal 12 on responsible consumption and production. The college aims to create a more just and sustainable environment.

READ MORE

Al Ain University continues its support for the “Ramadan Aman” campaign in its 10th season

Al Ain University continues its ongoing support for the «Ramadan Aman» campaign in its 10th season, serving as a main hub for packing iftar boxes with the participation of faculty, administrative staff, and visitors from outside the university. Launched by the Ihsan Charitable Association in partnership with the Ministry of Interior, and in collaboration with traffic and police departments to reduce traffic accidents, the campaign aims to distribute iftar meals to drivers at major intersections and crowded areas during iftar time. Dr. Enas Abu Lebdeh from the College of Education, Humanities and Social Sciences, and the head supervisor at the packing center.

READ MORE

A religious lecture titled “Few Days”

The Student Affairs Deanship (Abu Dhabi Campus), in collaboration with the Human Resources Unit and the General Authority of Islamic Affairs and Endowments, organized a religious lecture titled «Few Days» presented by Professor Sulaiman Al-Habash, the Senior Preacher. The lecture included several points for reflection and benefiting from the blessed month of Ramadan, including sanctifying the month of Ramadan and its blessings due to the revelation of the Quran therein. The preacher spoke about the significance of this noble month, reminding us that it is an opportunity to draw closer to Allah through various acts of worship and obedience.

READ MORE

Fun Activities on National Sports Day

As part of the United Arab Emirates National Sports Day celebrations, Al Ain University organized an open sports day under the slogan “Emirates Unites Us,” supervised by the Student Affairs Deanship in collaboration with the Sports Club and Volunteer Club at the Al Ain campus. Meanwhile, in the Abu Dhabi campus, it was organized in collaboration with the UAE Paralympic Committee.

READ MORE

Al Ain University secures the second place in the Universities Football Championship

The football team of Al Ain University (Abu Dhabi campus) secured second place among universities in Abu Dhabi and Al Ain, thus maintaining its strong position in university competitions in the Emirates. The team excelled throughout its journey in the group stage of the Abu Dhabi Emirate League, winning all five of its matches and confirming its superiority with a convincing victory.

READ MORE

“Gulf Week for Oral and Dental Health” Launches at Al Ain University

As part of healthcare and awareness efforts, the “Gulf Week for Oral and Dental Health” activities kicked off at Al Ain University (Al Ain Campus), organized by the Student Affairs Deanship in collaboration with Burjeel Royal Hospital and 4U Medical Center. The event saw wide participation from students, academics, and administrators.

READ MORE

The College of Law Celebrates Mother’s Day

The College of Law at Al Ain University (Abu Dhabi Campus), in collaboration with the Student Affairs Deanship, organized a celebration on the occasion of Mother’s Day, in the presence of Dr. Ramzi Madi, Deputy Dean of the College of Law, and Dr. Nuha Hamada, Deputy Dean of Student Affairs, along with deputy deans of other colleges, faculty members, administrative staff, and students. The celebration included several segments, starting with a video honoring the Mother of the Emirates and celebrating her role. An impactful video, prepared by university students, expressing their love, gratitude, and appreciation for their mothers.

READ MORE

AAU Students participate in “UAE Reads” activities

In collaboration with the Deanship of Student Affairs and student clubs (Library Club, Reading Club, Arts Club, and Red Crescent Club), Khalifa Library organized a reading competition as part of Reading Month activities in the UAE. The event, held in both Arabic and English, welcomed participation from male and female students from all the colleges. Alongside tokens of appreciation for all participants, the winners were honored with valuable prizes in recognition of their remarkable achievements during the competition.

READ MORE

Engineering students get acquainted with the latest innovations at the Police Summit in Dubai

As part of the activities of the Dubai Police Global Summit 2024, a group of students from the College of Engineering at Al Ain University (Abu Dhabi campus) embarked on a distinctive educational visit to the summit under the supervision of Mr. Yazan Al Ahmed.

The visit provided students with an opportunity to closely acquaint themselves with the latest technologies and practices in the fields of police work and security, and how engineering and technology can be integrated into this vital domain.

READ MORE

An event titled “Treasure Hunt”

The Technology Club at the Deanship of Student Affairs in Al Ain University (Abu Dhabi Campus) in collaboration with the College of Engineering and under the supervision of Dr. Mahmoud Al-Khasawneh, organized an event titled «Treasure Hunt». The event aimed to raise awareness among students about the risks of cyber fraud they may encounter in the face of technological advancement.

The event also included educating students about practical examples of electronic fraud risks and how to confront or avoid them. Additionally, it featured various educational competitions with an entertaining aspect, in which both students and faculty members participated.

READ MORE

Khalifa Library Organized a Workshop about Publishing Scientific Research

The Khalifa Library at Al Ain University (Al Ain Campus) hosted a workshop on «Publishing Scientific Research» led by Professor Dr. Ali Shehadeh, a renowned expert in Applied Linguistics and Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL) moderated by Dr.

Abdoulaye Kaba, the Library Director, and was attended by faculty members, students, and administrative staff. Dr. Shehadeh highlighted the key steps for publishing scientific research, offering valuable insights into guidelines.

READ MORE

A Workshop on “Towards Creative Horizons - 3D Printing”

The Deanship of Student Affairs at Al Ain University (Abu Dhabi campus) organized a workshop titled “Towards Creative Horizons” centered on 3D printing. Dr. Nuha Hamada, Deputy Dean of the Deanship of Student Affairs, delivered the session to foster students’ skills, amplify creativity, and acquaint them with innovative tools. Several students keen on technology and innovation attended the workshop, where they engaged in an enlightening discourse on the fundamentals and applications of 3D printing across various domains like medicine, engineering, and the arts.

Practical demonstrations featuring 3D printing machines captivated attendees, piquing their interest and deepening their comprehension of the technology and its multifaceted uses.

READ MORE

A workshop by the College of Engineering Entitled “Art of Digital Intrusion”

The College of Engineering at Al Ain University (Abu Dhabi Campus) organized a workshop entitled “Art of Digital Intrusion – Advanced Cybersecurity Tactics” in line with International Engineer Week.

The workshop was given by RedTeam Hacker Academy, Mr. Mohammad Jaisal and Mr. Inzamam Nizam and moderated by Eng. Rima Masri.

The workshop aimed to benefit the students in understanding the tactics used by real adversaries and helping them with practical skill set required to excel in Adversary Simulations and Penetration Testing specialty.

READ MORE

A student visit to Abu Dhabi Media Network

The Deanship of Student Affairs Office at Al Ain University's Abu Dhabi campus, in partnership with the College of Communication and Media, orchestrated a student excursion to Abu Dhabi Media Network to commemorate World Radio Day.

The objective of the outing was to underscore radio's significance in public communication and offer an understanding of diverse broadcasting techniques. During the visit, students engaged in discussions with representatives from different radio stations.

READ MORE

The College of Communication and Media organizes a student visit to WAM.

The College of Communication and Media (Abu Dhabi campus) organized a student visit to the Emirates News Agency (WAM) accompanied by faculty members. This visit comes as part of Al Ain University's efforts to integrate its students with practical experience and its commitment to cooperation with various institutions in the country, aiming to strengthen students' knowledge and enrich their practical skills. Omar Al-Ahmad, the editor-in-chief of the Arabic language department at the agency, provided an introductory overview of the agency and its development stages since its inception, as well as a presentation on the journey of news reporting within the agency. Al-Ahmad also answered questions from the college students, which covered various aspects of journalistic news production.

READ MORE

Umrah Trip for Al Ain University Family

The Human Resources Unit, in partnership with the Deanship of Student Affairs at Al Ain University - Abu Dhabi Campus, orchestrated an Umrah pilgrimage for both students and staff. The objective was to streamline the execution of Umrah rites and enrich the spiritual and religious dimensions within the university community.

This pilgrimage encompassed a pilgrimage to the Sacred Kaaba and the observance of Umrah rituals in Mecca. Every detail of the journey was carefully planned to guarantee the well-being and security of all attendees, offering comprehensive provisions including transportation, lodging, and spiritual guidance throughout the expedition.

READ MORE

A field visit of the Pharmacy Students to Mediclinic Al Jowhara Hospital

Students from the College of Pharmacy at Al Ain University (Al Ain Campus) visited the MediClinic Al Jowhara Hospital to explore its various departments and attend presentations highlighting the role of nutritionists in the hospital setting. They gained valuable insights into food service management and food safety practices within hospitals.

This experience provided students studying Food and Nutrition Sciences with a deeper understanding of various provisioning practices, including food reception, storage, preparation, and serving in healthcare settings.

READ MORE

Pharmacy Students Visit “National Dairy Hayatna” Factory

The College of Pharmacy at Al Ain University (Al Ain Campus) arranged a field trip to the “National Dairy Hayatna” Dairy factory for both Pharmacy faculty members and students.

This excursion presented a valuable opportunity for students to gain firsthand experience of the manufacturing procedures involved in various dairy products at a factory renowned for its diverse dairy item production. The guided tour of the factory provided a comprehensive understanding of the production process, enabling students to witness the application of various subjective and objective methodologies in evaluating dairy products.

READ MORE

