AAU delegation returns to the country after performing Umrah

The delegation of the Al Ain University of Science and Technology came back from the Holy Land after performing the Umrah rituals through the initiative launched under the supervision of the Human Resources unit to promote national and religious affiliation and adhere to the teachings of the Islamic religion. Approximately 25 employees from the academic and administrative staffs visited the Prophet Mohammad tomb, Al Masjid Al Nabawi and other Holy Places. The delegation provided their special thanks to the university in giving them this great opportunity, which has a great impact on them and drives them to further work towards excellence.
